IN MEMORIAM

With sad hearts we say, "So long," to our watchdog of the treasury. Those of us who knew Dave Donaldson loved him very much.

Dave joined our group in '59 and was elected treasurer of the American Hibiscus Society in 1962. He has spent many hours keeping our records correct. He was a tireless worker at his own chapter hibiscus show and any other show where he was needed. Even when the going was tough he was in there plugging away with the best of them.

He lived a full and rewarding life during his 78 years on this earth. The last of them he spent with his beloved flower, the Hibiscus.

We are sad to see you go, Dave, but we know that now you surely are growing hibiscus bigger and better than we can dream of.

As we pause in our own grief, we offer deepest condolences to his loved ones left behind. Dave has gone ahead to get our hibiscus garden ready in heaven.

James E. Monroe
